My dear friend

I enclose you a letter I handed last night I found on my return home, too late for that post. I also had found care of Mr. Wilson, ~~to send a letter~~ another letter from a gentleman in Leeds, a Mr. Atkinson, & hope it contained a warm recognition of your kind services?

Mr. Atkinson as a handsome contribution to our meeting and subscription last year, but does not generally take an active part in our movements - I telegraphed to my friend in Liverpool I also wrote them by last night's Post, you by our son, & Mrs Webb would dine with them on Thursday (Tomorrow) at 6-30 PM - I hope you will have a good time in Liverpool, & don't sorry I cannot be with you & see you off on Saturday; my friends are sure to make you welcome at their home - If you have time on Friday for a line & anything to say, even a good bye and me on to the enclosed address where I hope to be tomorrow night, shall think of you dining with my friends Mr & Mrs. Garrison, though I shall be 300 miles away - I leave home by the rail tonight -

With kindest regards to Frank & hoping you will have a safe & happy voyage & find all dear & you on the other side, well Believe me ever faithfully & lovingly your friend
Joseph Lupton
